Agenda Topics

[TIME ALLOTTED] THE OFFICIAL LAUNCH OF TWAIS FACEBOOK PAGE

DISCUSSION	President Yung-Ming Li has posted the importance of TWAIS which has been regarded as an vital connection of information management field between Taiwan and international societies.
CONCLUSIONS	Making use of the grand meeting of PACIS, we are pleased to announce that our Facebook page has officially and formally launched today.

[TIME ALLOTTED] SUGGESTIONS OF IMPROVEMENTS

DISCUSSION	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Professor Ting-Peng Liang encouraged TWAIS members to join more international meetings of AIS.2. It'd be good to join meetings of AIS and TWAIS annually or biennially.3. It has been suggested that we actively promote TWAIS to every Department of IM.4. In association with international journals, the exposure rate of TWAIS would be increased.
CONCLUSIONS	The prementioned suggestions would be seriously considered as references for TWAIS administration in the future.

[TIME ALLOTTED] SUGGESTIONS OF IMPROVEMENTS

DISCUSSION	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Professor Eldon Y. Li suggested that we can create more official groups in some communication apps such as LINE or WeChat so that TWAIS will be more accessible in time.2. Professor Li also advised that we can register as a member of AIS in the name of our department of CCU.
CONCLUSIONS	The prementioned suggestions would be seriously considered as references for TWAIS administration in the future.

[TIME ALLOTTED] SUGGESTIONS OF IMPROVEMENTS

DISCUSSION	Professor Wei-Hsi Hung has advised that we can nominate those who are in the position of administration (such as Deans or Department Chairmen) as next key administrative members, which would probably be helpful in providing resources for TWAIS.
CONCLUSIONS	The prementioned suggestions would be seriously considered as references for TWAIS administration in the future.
